

Please do not allow general cell phone use aboard airborne aircraft. I work for a major airline as a flight attendant and I know that having multiple cell conversations would not only be disruptive but unsafe. Airphones are available for those wishing to make calls inflight. Thank you for your attention to this matter.